Governance in relation to UK taxation

- Ultimate responsibility for the group's tax strategy and compliance rests with the Board of Ingersoll Rand Inc.;

When entering into commercial transactions, the group seeks to take advantage of available tax incentives, reliefs and exemptions in line with, and in the spirit of, tax legislation.

The level of risk which the group accepts in relation to UK taxation is consistent with its overall objective of achieving certainty in the group's tax affairs. At all times the group seeks to comply fully with its regulatory and other obligations and to act in a way which upholds its reputation as a responsible corporate citizen. In relation to any specific issue or transaction, the Board is ultimately responsible for identifying the risks, including tax risks, which need to be addressed and for determining what actions should be taken to manage those risks, having regard to the materiality of the amounts and obligations in question.

Relationship with HMRC

The group seeks to have a transparent and constructive relationship with HMRC through regular meetings and communication in respect of developments in the group's business, current, future and retrospective tax risks, and interpretation of the law in relation to all relevant taxes.

When submitting tax computations and returns to HMRC, the group discloses all relevant facts and identifies any transactions or issues where it considers that there is potential for the tax treatment to be uncertain.

Any inadvertent errors in submissions made to HMRC are fully disclosed as soon as reasonably practicable after they are identified.
